Newsletter - November 2023

Changes afoot in 2024

This newsletter is more a flyer than the usual missive that is packed full of information, but this isn't because we have run out of interesting material, more the fact that we need to notify all our clients of a slight change which will be happening to the firm on 1 April 2024.

Please don't be alarmed, we are just shortening our name so from 1 April 2024 we will be known as Margrave Solicitors LLP. None of our team are changing and our past and present ethos remains the same. We are still in regular contact with Jennifer Margrave and she continues to be interested in seeing how the firm develops and many of our clients will still be in contact with her around the Guildford area.

You will notice a change in branding and email addresses, so our next newsletter will have a new look. Please be assured of continuity as our existing arrangements will be redirected until things are up and running and we all become more familiar with the change.

If you have any questions, please feel free to contact us.
